

Subject: <no subject>

Date: Thursday, June 7, 2007 7:59 PM

From: jacqueline devillers

Dear sirs, After so many thousands of animals killed in such cruel ways, can you not do what is morally and humanly needed to stop these methods. We as we have people are doing the same crimes to ourselves as we have done for years to animals. The responsibility of ethics is unfortunately in your hands. Please pass laws to make us better as human beings, and it begins with this cause. Thank you, Jacqueline Devillers